[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] ROANGER, VA., March 26.—Henry Payne, a tweive-year old son of Mr. Oliver Payne, of Tazewell street, was struck on the head with a club by Robert Woodson, a colored boy about the same age, yesterday evening, and received lujuries from which he died during Monday, nach.

He carried out his instructions to the letter and knocked the lad senseless. The injured boy was taken home and a physician sent for. At first it was not thought that the halfs injuries would prove fatal, but later in the night he lapsed into unconsciousness again, and an operation was performed to remove the pieces of broken bone. Court-Day- A Singular Fraud Recalled.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] MARCH 26, 1889.

MARCH 26, 1889.

A worse day than yesterday for a courtday can scarcely be imagined, and yet there was a rood turnout of the sovereigns at King William County Court. The grand jury was to session and made a number of indictasents. Among the number was found the name of the notorious James Isaac Littlepage. Some of your readers may remember him as figuring some ten years ago in a trial for forgery that attracted a great deal of attention. He was defended by some of the ablest criminal lawyers in Virginia, including the late Major B. B. Douglas and Colonel John R. Young. He had three trials—swo in this county and one to Henrico—in each of which be was convicted and sentenced to the penitentary. After his last conviction by a Henrico jury he made a strong appeal to the Governor for pardon, inst conviction by a Henrico jury he made a strong appeal to the Governor for pardon, and to help on this cause feigned to be stricken dumb, and did not speak for several mouths. The then Governor (Holliday, I think it was) got some physician in Richmond to administer a certain drug to Littlepage white the latter was in jul, and under the influence of the drug Littlepage taiked glibly enough, and thus the fraud was exposed. Of course the pardon was refused, and he served out his term. Littlepage is from a good family, and had a wife that stood by him in all his troubles with wonderful devotion. Now he appears in the cruminal court under an indictment for housebreaking.

Three little boys—Masters Herbert Mann, Ross and Gill Hinton—the two last the sons of Dr. Samnel Hinton, were injured this moraing while playing with powder. The boys are pupils at Anderson public school. They went off this moraing to amuse themselves by lighting powder to see it flash. It is supposed they must have put too much of the powder in a pile, for when they applied the match a report was heard and the boys ran screaming to a pump near by. Two of the boys escaped with very slight injuries, but Master Ross Hinton was quite badly hurt and will be confined to his home for several days.

Norfolk News Notes.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

Norfolk, March 26, 1889.

The weather continues very unsealed, and the Dismai swamp farmers think now they will lose everything they have put in the ground from rot. The green peas on the truck farms are turning yellow and will be much damaged by the excessive and unexampled rains. Irish polatoes will have to be mostly replanted and the crop will be that much later maturing.

The truck-farms are shipping radishes and much later maturing.

The truck-farms are shipping radishes and lettuce to the northern maskets, along with spring cabbage. The open winter has made a great abundance of the usual spring salads, but there is no demand scarcely and shipments are small, and the most choice "greens" are a drug in the local market at 50 cents a barret.

The semi-annual sanitary inspection of the improvement in the general health of Norfolk is fully attested by the reduced mortality list, the dealth sthrough the present winter months being less than one third what

NAVAL GUNS AND SHIPS.

A Washington special says: Although the contract for building the coast-defence vessel will not be given out until after the 3d of April next there are already in the city a number of centractors and ship-building sengaged upon their calculations. The amount originally appropriated for this vessel was $1,000,000, but the final clause of the act provided for the appropriation of $1,000.000 additional to complete the ship, with the provise that the material used in the structure be of American production. Of this amount Secretary Whitney set aside the sum of $300,000 for the construction of a submarine torpede-boat, the centract for which has been awarded to the Columbian Iran-Works, of Baitimore, Md., who agree to show a speed of at least six knots under water. The const. defence vessel will be fitted with the heaviest ordnance ever made in this country. One sixteen-inch and one twelve-inch breech-loading rifle will be in the casin bailery. An appropriation of $2,000,000 was made by the last Congress for the armament of the new ships, and in the naval bill, which was approved on the 2d instant, a further appropriation of $2.500,000 was made to carry out the requirements toward the to carry out the requirements toward the armament and armor of domestic manufacture for the reseels authorized by the several acts for the unfinished monitors and for the double-turreted monitor Manuonomob, which is the only one of the five that has ber armor complete. It was bought of two firms in Sheffield, England. It is a commond armor, with steel face and wroughtiron back.

A CHANGE IN THE CHARLESTON'S GUNS.

The battery for the new cruiser Cha leston will be altered from the original plan, it being impossible to secure the foreings for the eight-inch guns from the contractors in time. The Chief of the Bureau of Occannee has decided, therefore, to substitute two sixinch guns for the eight-inch allowed by the board. At the present time the entire batteries of the Yorktown and the Charleston are ready to be put on board these vessels. Sixteen six-inch breech-leading rides have been turned out by the gun-foundry in this city. Of this number tweive have been sent to the naval ordunance proving-ground for the official test, and the remaining four will be sent over the latter part of this week. There are also four guns of this calibre unfaished at this yard. Three of the ten-inch guns have been completed for the double-turreted monitor. Miantonomob, and the remaining one is well under way.

The work on gun-carriages has been well kept up. The eight-inch carriages for the Chicago have been inished and are now aboard that vessel at New York. There are enough of the six-inch carriages on haud to supply all present demands.

At the request of the owners, who are deter-nined to sell, I will offer for sale, on the prem-TUESDAY, APRIL 2, 1889,

TUESDAY, APRIL 2, 1889,
at 1 o'clock P. M. the LARGE, CENTRALLY-LOCATED, AND VERY VALUABLE WARE-INCLEDED PROPERTY above referred to. The LOT fronts 232 10-12 feet on the wast side of Fifteenth street and extends back 133 5-12 feet on the south side of Cary, and 134 feet on the north side of Dock street. The warehouse is substantially constructed, and has a spacity for the storage of 2,560 hogsheads of tobacco.

The property is now unoccupied, but were the floor of the house raised above the line of high water, it would doubtiess command a tenant at a paying rout, and it has great value for uses other than tobacco-storage since its location so close to the Danville dopot, and its tracts, which connect with all other lines, give to it such advantages in the matter of receiving and shipping—factors now recognized as all important in these days of sharp competition—as to make his property would now be paying handsomely if one five man owned it, instead of the many who now have a say in its management.

The property extremely well suited for heavy commercial purposes.
